Adequate compensation for rostered leaders matters to us in the Saint Paul Area Synod. Recommended guidelines for compensation are revised each year and are posted on the synod's website. Health care and contributions to a pension for rostered leaders and their families is a significant aspect of overall compensation, which is set by the calling congregation, agency or institution.

In comparison to the previous year, is your compensation for 2017: Increased Flat Reduced

Does your workplace provide any of the following:

Social Security allowance

Additional pension contribution (beyond recommended 10%)

Contribution to a health savings or health spending account

What health insurance plan does the congregation provide:

Portico Gold +

Portico Silver

Portico Bronze

Other plan (please describe below)

Would you like a conversation with the bishop about your level of compensation or financial concerns you are facing? Yes No
